

Forecast For Northeast England
Issued by Met Office Exeter
at 0400 on Monday 16 Aug 2021

++ Valid for broadcast between 0600 and 1800

Headline:
Bright and breezy with sunny spells.

Today:
A breezy but fine day, with plenty of sunny spells. Feeling a little fresher than of late, with temperatures around average, although these will be tempered by the breeze. Maximum temperature 19 deg C (66 deg F).

Tonight:
Fine at first, however occasional, mostly light rain should spread in from the west later in the night, with low cloud also becoming more widespread. Remaining damp by dawn. Minimum temperature 9 deg C (48 deg F).

Tuesday:
A cloudier day on the whole, with the odd spot of rain possible at times. The east should be drier overall, with the best chance of a few brighter spells. Maximum temperature 19 deg C (66 deg F).

Outlook for Wednesday to Friday:
A quiet but rather cloudy spell of weather to end the working week, with a little rain probably most likely Thursday. Temperatures around average, but with mild nights given cloud-cover.

(C) Crown Copyright 2021. Published by the Met Office.